

The MISSION is POSSIBLE:

FACING THE CHALLENGE

2016 OKLAHOMA CHILDREN'S BEHAVIORAL HEALTH CONFERENCE

Embassy Suites Norman Hotel & Conference Center

May 11-13, 2016

Adolescence and Substance Abuse Track

Mark D. Godley, Ph.D.

Dr. Mark Godley is a Senior Scientist and Director of the Evidence Based Treatment Center at Chestnut Health Systems in Bloomington-Normal, Illinois. Dr. Godley will present with Amber Sullivan-Maxwell, M.A., L.P.C. of Northcare on the Community Reinforcement Approach: Integrated Substance and Mental Health Treatment for Adolescents and Young Adults on May 12th.

C.C. Nuckols, Ph.D.

Dr. Cardwell C. Nuckols has served in the behavioral medicine field for over 35 years and for the last 20 years is considered one of the leading experts in the world on addiction and recovery. Dr. Nuckols will present a day long Institute on Treating Emerging Young Adult Alcoholics with Substance Abuse Disorders and The Art and Science of Healing on May 11th.

William Tankersley, M.D.

William Tankersley, M.D., is the Medical Director of the Children's Recovery Center in Norman specializing in the treatment of adolescents with co-occurring mental health and substance abuse. Dr. Tankersley will present on Adolescent Vapor Use and the Emerging Trend of Vaporized Illicit Substances on May 12th.

Dub Turner

Mr. Turner has over 36 years of experience working for the Oklahoma Bureau of Narcotics (OBN). Mr. Dub Turner's session, entitled Current Drug Trends for Youth and Young Adults will explore how youth and young adults are using new forms of well-known drugs, describe new trends in Oklahoma and give a preview of new drugs coming to Oklahoma and the devastating effects these drugs have on users on May 12th.

Christopher R. Wilkins, MHA

Christopher Wilkins serves as a member of SAMHSA'S National Advisory Council and as a board member of the Council on Social Work Education. Mr. Wilkins will present on Leveraging Mobile Technology to Build Concurrent Recovery Monitoring and Relapse Prevention Capacity. This session will inform attendees about the ACHES mobile app project and discuss current trends in health service delivery systems on May 13th.

Jerry Moe

Jerry Moe is the National Director of Children's Programs at the Betty Ford Center at Rancho Mirage, California. He is an author, lecturer, and trainer on issues for children and families hurt by addiction. Jerry Moe will discuss his latest book is Through a Child's Eyes: Understanding Addiction and Recovery on May 12th.

