

Jennifer Wilburn, MS LPC LADC NCGC-II CM
COO, The Center for Therapeutic Interventions

Ms. Wilburn is a managing partner and serves as the COO for The Center for Therapeutic Interventions, whose mission is focused on providing holistic integrated outpatient services designed to promote overall wellness and recovery. Ms. Wilburn has been passionate and instrumental in keeping The Center for Therapeutic Interventions on the cutting edge of integrated treatments since its inception in 2005. In 2006, The Center for Therapeutic Interventions became the first certified agency in the state of Oklahoma to provide gambling outpatient services. In February 2011 The Center for Therapeutic Interventions was awarded a national grant to provide a combined method of implementing two evidenced based parenting programs to improve reunification outcomes. In a previous career Ms. Wilburn was a fulltime certified teacher. Ms. Wilburn utilizes this background to work with staff to provide developmentally appropriate treatment to children and families. Ms. Wilburn began working in the mental health and addiction field over a decade ago and has consistently worked toward the advancement of holistic treatment. Ms. Wilburn continues to provide clinical services as well as to focus on CTI's corporate compliance and performance improvement in her role as COO for The Center for Therapeutic Interventions.
