Robert Floyd: Development and Leadership Expert

The next OK State Training Coordinator's quarterly meeting will be held on November 2nd. State Training Coordinators will meet at the Jim Thorpe building, in room 560, at 2pm. Please make every effort to attend as we will have a stellar guest speaker from The Floyd Training Firm. Mr. Robert Floyd will be presenting fresh ideas on Leadership and Organizational Development. He will also help to motivate our working team for 2011. Mr. Floyd was recently awarded an Innovator of the Year distinction from the Journal Record for developing an innovative leadership system and process that adds accountability, positive peer pressure, extensive student interaction, on-line tracking and management involvement through the Effective Leadership Work System. His system has led organizations and leaders away from failure and coached them to take charge of their long term success. Robert Floyd has a proven track record of presenting organizational development and design and consulting for leadership advancement. Mr. Floyd has researched and authored over thirty leadership sessions and has consulted and/or presented at over 46 Oklahoma based organizations. A few of the topics he presents are: Emotional Strength, Leveraging Organizational Conflict, and Executive Development. Mr. Floyd has a vast background in business and development. He was raised in an entrepreneurial family environment pursued the family's passion in the recreational vehicle industry. Mr. Floyd was very involved in the business by contributing to every aspect of administration including budgeting, training, strategic planning and customer service. He also pursued a degree in business and organizational development on his way to becoming Vice President and General Manager of the family business. Currently, Mr. Floyd pursues his passions of development and training while raising his own family on their long-horn cattle ranch. In addition to this wonderful guest speaker, we will also discuss the strategic planning of our own training council and what we hope to gain through the coming year.

Our mission is to distribute the most current and pertinent training news and to collect information regarding unfulfilled needs for training. We hope to be a source of information for training managers and supervisors throughout Oklahoma.

HCM Forum

CORE has recently made changes to the training opportunities once provided at the brown bag lunches. The HCM team found a different schedule and more space was needed in order to reach the widest audience. The training will be held at the Concourse Theater on October 13th from 9-11am and from 1-3pm. Jeanie Roberts will be publishing the agenda once it has been confirmed. Follow-up meeting notes will be posted on the CORE website.

OKC Human Resource Society (SHRM)

Each month the local chapter of the Society of Human Resource Management, OCHRS, presents pertinent topics during a networking lunch. Coming up in October - the topic will be Diversity - which is not only meaningful for HR personnel, but for all Managers. This luncheon will be held at the Francis Tuttle Technology Center - Reno Campus. Registration begins at 11:15, lunch begins at 11:30 and the seminar will run from 12 - 1pm. Prior registration at <http://www.ochrs.org> is encouraged and the cost is $30 for non-members and $20 for members.

Employees Benefits Council 15th Annual Health and Safety Expo

The EBC State Wellness Program is hosting another great opportunity for all state employees to gain health and safety training that is mandated by the Oklahoma Statutes, Title 40 § 403.E. Last year, services and exhibitors included bone density screenings, body fat analysis, spinal screenings, cholesterol, glucose and blood pressure checks and chair massages. Health & Safety Expo will give employees an excellent opportunity to seek the most up-to-date health information and prevention services, which promote healthy lifestyles, disease prevention and self-care.

This year's expo will be held on October 21st, from 9am - 4pm at the State Capitol Building on both the 1st and 2nd floor rotunda. For more detailed information please contact Miranda Manning at mmanning@ebc.state.ok.us
