

I HAVE DIABETES...

HOW DO I PREVENT AGAINST COVID-19

- Regularly monitor your blood sugar and take medications as directed. Contact your healthcare provider to obtain an emergency supply of medications, if needed.

- Focus on incorporating healthy food into your diet and increasing daily physical activity.

- Talk to your healthcare provider about ways to quit using tobacco, as smoking can lead to several serious health complications.