Employer's Notice to Employee (FMLA)

1. All leave designated as family and medical leave (FMLA) will be counted towards your annual 12 week entitlement.
2. Family and medical leave may be paid or unpaid and you may elect to use accrued sick or annual leave, or compensatory time (exempt employees only) in lieu of unpaid leave. Your failure to specify that a leave request is for family and medical leave does not prevent the department from designating leave as family and medical leave when appropriate.
3. If medical certification is required or has been requested:

Failure to provide complete medical certification may result in denial or delay of requested leave. Additional medical certification will be required not more often than every 30 days or when you request an extension of intermittent leave or leave that was originally approved for more than 30 days. The department may also require recertification if the circumstances described in your current certification change significantly or we receive information that casts doubt on your stated reason for absence.
4. You may be required to provide the department with certification that you are fit for duty prior to returning to work for any absence that was taken for your own serious illness. This requirement will not apply when leave is taken on an intermittent basis.

Employer's Notice to Employee (MFMLA)

1. All leave designated as military family leave (MFMLA) for a qualifying exigency will be counted towards your annual 12 week entitlement. This entitlement in combination with any use of family and medical leave (FMLA) cannot exceed 12 work weeks (480 hours) total during a 12 month period.
2. All leave designated as military family leave (MFMLA) to care for a covered military service member will be counted towards your annual 26 week entitlement. This entitlement in combination with any use of family and medical leave (FMLA) and/or any use of military family leave (MFLMA) for a qualifying exigency cannot exceed 26 work weeks (1040 hours) total during a single 12 month period. However, this will not limit the availability of leave under standard FMLA or MFMLA for a qualifying exigency during any other 12 month period.
3. Military family leave may be paid or unpaid and you may elect to use accrued sick or annual leave, or compensatory time (exempt employees only) in lieu of unpaid leave.
4. If the military service member medical certification is required or has been requested, failure to provide a completed military service member medical certification may result in denial or delay of requested leave.
5. The department may require you to provide confirmation that an instance of intermittent leave is related to the military family leave event for which the MFMLA intermittent leave was originally granted.
