

Request to Access OK Election Data Warehouse (Basic Access)

The OK Election Data Warehouse (EDW) is a public access site for election data including the Absentee Ballot Request List and the Deleted Voter List. By completing and submitting this request form, you are requesting basic access to the EDW, which does not include access to the Oklahoma Voter Registration List.

About the OK Election Data Warehouse (EDW)

- There is no charge to access the EDW, but you must submit a request form.
- Access to the EDW is valid for one year, but may be renewed.
- Data is updated each night and is current as of the date and time it is downloaded and/or printed.
- Access to the EDW is a complimentary service; therefore, the State Election Board does not offer technical assistance and is not responsible for data once it has been extracted.

Questions regarding data may be directed to info@elections.ok.gov.

Instructions for Requesting Access

To request access to the EDW, you must fill out the request form below and submit it by email to info@elections.ok.gov.

You may also submit the completed form by fax to (405) 521-6457 or by mail to:
Oklahoma State Election Board
State Capitol
Box 53156
Oklahoma City, OK 73152-3156

After your form has been processed, you will receive an automated confirmation email from info@okelections.gov. The email contains a link to the site, a username, and password.

If you do not receive a confirmation email within one week of submission, please contact the State Election Board at (405) 521-2391 or info@elections.ok.gov.
