

Publication of Information in the Public Interest Related to Complaint C-26-18

Ethic Rule 6.9 Confidentiality of Complaint or Investigation.

"Unless the Commission determines that a complaint or a formal investigation should be made public, all complaints and formal investigations, including documents and discussions in executive session, shall remain confidential and shall not be disclosed[.] ... The Commission may make a complaint or formal investigation and any documents relating thereto public at any time it deems release of that information to be in the public interest."

At the October 8, 2026, Ethics Commission Meeting, the Commission determined that the following information relative to Complaint C-26-18 was necessary for the purpose of public transparency and education:

The Oklahoma Ethics Commission has completed its review of Complaint C-26-18 involving Insurance Commissioner Glen Mulready. After a thorough examination of the available information, the Commission did not substantiate the allegation and found no evidence of any violation of the Ethics Rules.

In keeping with the Commission's commitment to transparency and its responsibility to share information when release is in the public interest, this complaint is now closed.
