Education Data

The Oklahoma Youth Academy Charter School (OYACS) provides educational services to children in secure care settings.

Youthful Offender Data

Charging a child as a youthful offender allows the State to ensure public safety by holding children accountable for serious crimes while affording courts methods of rehabilitation for those children in the juvenile justice system through the custody or supervision of the Office of Juvenile Affairs.

Looking Forward

In 2019, the Office of Juvenile Affairs will focus on the following;

- Expand GPS Program to include real-time monitoring for residential youth on pass or upon initial release and increased use as an alternative to detention.
- Invest in career tech equipment including a driving simulator, welding materials, and auto mechanic equipment.
- Increase available therapuetic and traditional foster homes.
- Create positions specific to workforce development to assist youth in preparing for and entering the workforce.
- Establish equalization among group home rates.
