

IMPORTANT NOTE: This form must be signed by an owner of the commercial grower license who is listed as a person of interest on the application. This attestation and accompanying documentation shall demonstrate that the permit area on which the licensee will initiate or conduct commercial growing operations has been owned by the licensee for at least a five (5) year period prior to submission of application, pursuant to OAC 442:10-5-3.3 and 63 O.S. § 427.26.

INSTRUCTIONS: Please complete this form in full with accompanying documentation showing that the licensee has lawfully held ownership of the permit area for the period of time required under 63 O.S. § 427.26.

This form can be submitted as part of a new or renewal commercial grower license application. It can also be emailed to OMMABONDS@omma.ok.gov if there is no application to submit. After submission of this attestation form and the accompanying documentation, OMMA will verify the attestation and required accompanying documentation.
