2025 POLYGRAPH TRAINING SEMINAR

THURSDAY,
OCTOBER 2, 2025

OKLAHOMA STATE BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

CLEET ACCREDITED

2025 OSBI Polygraph Training

SPEAKER

Alan Saquella

Investigative Interviewing and Consultant for Investigations

Alan Saquella is a nationally recognized expert in security and investigations with over 30 years of experience across the corporate and public sectors. Through his consulting practice, Alan specializes in providing expert-led training in investigative interviewing techniques and conducting sensitive internal investigations for small and medium-sized organizations. He helps businesses address insider threats, employee misconduct, fraud, and ethical violations with professionalism, discretion, and a legally sound approach.

Alan's expertise is grounded in decades of real-world experience, including his former role as Director of Security Operations and Investigations at Cox Communications, where he led a nationally recognized investigations team. Under his leadership, the team resolved tens of thousands of internal and external cases involving white-collar crime and policy violations, earning him a strong reputation as a trusted investigative authority. He is also a certified polygraph examiner with a proven track record of handling complex and confidential cases in both the public and private sectors.

An accomplished author and speaker, Alan has published more than 70 articles and co-authored Security Investigations: A Professional's Guide with Dr. Larry G. Nicholson. His work has been featured in national media, podcasts, and professional conferences.

Alan currently serves as Director of Investigations and Research at Verensics, a firm that develops cutting-edge investigative interviewing software. He is also a member of the Identity Theft Advisory Board, where he contributes to national efforts to combat cyber-enabled crime.

He holds master's and bachelor's degrees in law enforcement and administration from Northern Arizona University and holds certifications as a Certified Protection Professional (CPP) and Certified Polygraph

DIRECTIONS

Directions to the J.D. McCarty Center:

Take I-35 to Norman.

Take the Robinson Street exit and go east. Go east on Robinson through Norman to 12th Avenue NE. At that intersection, you'll find a 7-11 convenience store, a Conoco C-Store, the Griffin Memorial Hospital campus and City of Norman soccer and baseball fields.

Continue east on Robinson for about 3/4 of a mile. Look for the hospital's sign on the right and turn into our main entrance. The conference center is on the north side of the main building.
