EVENT SUMMARY

The Tecumseh Pages Across the Plains Literacy Workshop welcomed 40 passionate educators from 9 districts for an energizing day of collaboration and learning. Participants were especially excited to attend an event so close to home, allowing for meaningful connection among neighboring districts. The workshop centered on deepening understanding of dyslexia and strengthening Tier 1 reading strategies, equipping educators with practical, evidence-based tools to support all learners. Sessions emphasized the importance of aligning practices across classrooms and roles, and attendees valued the chance to grow together as a regional learning community. With strong engagement, purposeful learning, and a spirit of collaboration, the Tecumseh event was a standout moment in the week's professional development series.

PARTICIPANT FEEDBACK

"I loved that [the presenter] was so passionate about what she was teaching about! I was really engaged the whole time because of it."

"I love the presenter! She was full of energy and had great ideas. "

"I will immediately use the strategies I learned in my session in my classroom."
